Events

Monday, February 7th
"Discovering Your God Given Gifts"
Lynn Grandon

You are gifted, but only God knows your full potential! Lynn will show us how St. Paul's Letter to the Romans helps us discover our gifts, which opens us up to understanding why we think and act the way we do, how our gifts affect relationships, what career/ministry suits us best, and how using our gifts will bring us true joy. Lynn Grandon is the Founding Director & CEO - Women's Choice Center (a pro-life medical center), the former Director of the Office of Respect Life & Human Dignity, and a frequent speaker on the dignity of the human person.

Monday, February 14th
"Love & Holiness: Can the Two Go Together"
Fr. Nathan Cromly, CSJ

Is there room in the love of man and woman for holiness? Join us this Valentine's Day as Fr. Nathan discusses how human love, fully expressed, not only brings great happiness to humanity but also gives glory to God. Fr. Nathan is a brother of the Community of St. John in Princeville, IL. He teaches theology and philosophy throughout the US and beyond with a special emphasis on ministering to youth and young adults.

Monday, February 21st
"Lectio Divina: A Meditative Approach to Scripture"
Steve Mattern

Is God speaking to you? What is He saying? How can you hear His voice? Come and hear an insightful presentation by Steve Mattern on the art of listening to God through the ancient meditative practice of Lectio Divina. Steve is the Ethics Instructor at St. Francis Medical Center's College of Nursing, a licensed counselor and a long-time student of Theology.
