

The Catholic Diocese of Peoria Presents:

TAP INTO SOMETHING MORE

6:30 pm

The Medici

120 W. North Street
Normal, IL

Events

Tuesday, February 8th

“Faith and Finances”

Charlie Roy

Does the Church have answers for difficult economic times? What does my checkbook have to do with my faith? How can I be a good steward with what I have been given? These questions and more will be discussed as Charlie engages the timely topic of how faith and finances intersect. Mr. Roy is the principal of Peoria Notre Dame High School, has a Master's in Education Administration and has been involved in Catholic education since 2000.

Tuesday, February 15th

“The Ten Commandments of Not Marrying a Loser”

Craig & Amy Dyke

Too often, people get married without honestly considering if their partner is good for them. Come and listen to Craig & Amy share some practical and spiritual insights on how to marry the right person and stay away from the loser next door. As Associate Director for the Diocesan Office of Family Life, Craig moderates the Pre-Cana Conference Days, and together with Amy, leads Engaged Couple Encounter Weekends, instructs couples in Natural Family Planning and offers marriage enrichment date nights for their local parish.

Tuesday, February 22nd

“New Evangelization: Elevating & Transforming the World”

Sr. Silvia Maria, SCTJM

John Paul II & Benedict XVI have called for a New Evangelization. What is the New Evangelization? Who is it aimed for, and how does it involve the Christian laity? Sr. Silvia will give an overview of the New Evangelization, and how it affects each of us as Christians in the world. Sr. Silvia is a professed religious in the Servants of the Pierced Hearts of Jesus and Mary, and serves as the director of the John Paul II Newman Center for Illinois State University (ISU), Illinois Wesleyan University (IWU), and Heartland Community College.
